

Sandeep Runwal – Director Runwal Group

Sandeep Runwal – Director, Runwal Group, is an alumnus of IIM Bangalore and alumni of Harvard Business School. With a robust experience of over 20 years and being thoroughly involved in the business he is known to be highly detail oriented and uncompromising in quality. Being regarded as an industry thought leader for his immense emphasis on 'Quality on Time' bundled with customer service he was awarded as the 'Lords of the Land' by Star Reality in 2011.

His farsightedness has made the Runwal Group become one of Mumbai's premier developers by creating landmarks within the area of development that led the group to establish a solid portfolio of 65 significant projects in the residential, commercial and retail space. Sandeep was the driving force behind Mumbai's most famous landmark - the R City mall. Besides being one of the largest retail properties in the western region, it is perhaps the only mall to have received funding from Singapore-based GIC. His deep understanding of business, research and consumer insights and behavior, has enabled the Runwal Group to manage one of largest retail portfolios that include R-mall Mulund & Thane, Runwal Odeon and R-City.

As a leader, Sandeep has placed a great deal of value in nurturing relationships for the long run and has constantly motivated and pushed his team towards excellence. He also spearheads the company's finance function and is involved in the Group's corporate executive functions that include Legal & Regulatory Affairs, Corporate Communications, Strategic Procurement, Investments, Global Projects and Assurance.

He is a keen traveler, an avid reader and has a passion for sports.
